Excerpt from Walter Stanborough Sutton: April 5, 1877, November 10, 1916 Introduction the greatness of his abilities, more and more brought out the nobility and simplicity of his nature and emphasized the absence of all the petty and unhappy traits which so often mar the characters of the greatest men. Walter Stanborough Sutton, son of Wil liam Bell and Agnes Black Sutton, was born in Utica, New York, April 5, 1877. He was the fifth successive son and grew into a strong, rugged boy with shy, retiring manners and very sensitive disposition. When he was ten years of age his parents removed to a ranch in Russell County, Kansas, and his next nine years were spent in the country. In the grade and high schools at Russell, from which he was graduated, he was studious and ranked high in his classes. In these early years he manifested a strong mechanical bent; he re paired the farm machines and put them in order for the successive crops, and handled them all with marked skill and success. His interest in photography began when...
