Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Ontario Institution for the Education of the Blind: Its Management and Mismanagement, a Criticism That statement was duly acknowledged by the Provincial Secretary, but, until the 20th of November last I never knew whether any action would be taken or not. On that day, Dr. J. Geo. Hodgins, as Senior Commissioner, notified me that an Investigation was to be held November 27th, at Brantford. Not until Saturday, November 24th, did Mr. Ratcliffe, the other complainant, and myself, receive definite information that all expenses would be paid to witnesses. Notwithstanding these temporal and the more serious financial limitation, six witnesses were present, beside Mr. Ratcliffe and myself. Had we had suitable notification, we could as easily have had sixty as six; for the eager interest and unanimity displayed by former pupils in rejoicing at the prospect of the removal of Principal Dymond, were as awful as they were singularly suggestive. Abnormal and bitter is the legacy of hatred exhibited towards the present Principal, and, when its universal character is taken into account, can be explained on no other hypothesis than that something was and is not only rotten in the state of Denmark, but also that its King was not as an educator sans peur et sans reproche. Were the Institute under the Minister of Education, there would be a reasonable chance, nay a positive certainty that the Principal of such an institution would not and could not be like the man who now so unworthily satisfies the requirements of an educator. But, after all, what better could be expected? He was not chosen because he was an educator, but being out of...
