Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017.
 Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Hank Castor has been a law enforcement officer most of his adult life. Devastated by the unsolved murder of his wife, he abandons his career as a federal agent to pursue the killer and exact revenge. Consumed by guilt and grief in the six years since the murder, he has become moody and prone to violent outbreaks of temper. Hank s daughter Betsy, anxious to help, throws out a lifeline. Hank is not sure he wants to grasp. History professor Eldon Quist s carefully organized world has come crashing down. Accusations of plagiarism, sexual misconduct, and foul play have stripped him of all he held dear. His academic career in ruins and his wedding engagement broken, he returns to Seattle after the sudden death of his parents. He is adrift, awash in self-pity until he meets Candice Wells, a fiery, independent-minded young artist who challenges him to move forward. Porter Wells, former business tycoon and womanizer turned civic-minded activist drowns while scuba diving. His estranged daughter Candice suspects that backroom politics at City Hall involving a multi-million dollar project sponsored by a...
