

Want Happiness?: Seeds of Happiness

By Paul Suttles

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 173 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Describe your daily life in one word. Is it mostly: Boring? Exciting? Blah? Satisfying? Confusing? Chaotic? Unsatisfying? So-so? Happy? Sad? Or something else? Now, in one word, describe how you would like for it to be. If happy is the description you chose, then read Want Happiness? for a life changing experience. Want Happiness? is a story about the developing relationship between a teenage boy (Andy) and a grandfatherly friend (Curly). Andy, like all of us, is seeking happiness. Since Curly seems happy, Andy seeks his guidance. His journey takes him through turns he does not expect. When does God answer prayers? What can you learn from a homeless man? Why would a young girl give him a penny change from a ten cent tip? You are invited to join Andy as he sows Seeds of Happiness. This book is an inspiration, and one which readers of any age can identify with and take to heart. You will feel better inside after you read it. -Steve Stearman, University Administrator A book full of life, written in...
