HIS MISSION ON EARTH: A FIRSTHAND ACCOUNT (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .HIS MISSION ON EARTH is a reissue of KENNY: THE MAN WHO LOOKED LIKE THE SHROUD published in 1989. While the book's message may be even more relevant today, what inspired me to present it to the public anew was witnessing the effect of the original KENNY version on a woman painting our Massachusetts house. Estranged from her husband, this recent college graduate was struggling to pay her bills, retain custody of her two children, and keep her old van running. Seeing an open box of the KENNY books in our garage, the harried young woman asked to borrow a copy. This was on a Friday; when she returned on Monday, the person I saw appeared to have been elevated to some higher joyous plane and was now tripping the light fantastic with angels, as she gushed, You don't know how lucky you are to have known Kenny. This is a first-hand account about the inspired mission of Kenny Klinkert, a startling Jesus look-alike, who believes he has a personal kinship to the image of the man imprinted on the ancient burial cloth known as the Shroud of Turin, which may or may not have covered the body of the crucified Christ. Kenny's overwhelming frustration is trying to communicate in words the reality to which he alone considers himself to be privileged. I will always remember the first time Kenny skipped past me along a sidewalk in Laguna Beach, pumping his arm in the air while proclaiming to the world his message of life over death. Our eyes locked momentarily -- a strange unfocused gaze as if trying to penetrate some distant obscuring mist of time and place, perhaps beyond...
